The Roman M. Lubetzy KINDness Award
Daniel Lubetzky, Vice President of the Roman and Sonia Lubetzky Foundation, is a 1990 graduate of Trinity University. Building on his international upbringing and his Trinity experiences, including study abroad in Israel, he founded PeaceWorks in 1994, an international food company producing products incorporating ingredients from nations on opposing sides of political conflicts.

This award recognizes a student who embodies and demonstrates the virtue of kindness, as well as a high level of scholarship at Trinity University. The Roman M. Lubetzky Endowment Fund for Kindness seeks to encourage the attributes of kindness and noble behavior as values among Trinity students.

The KINDness award is the most prestigious of the Student Leadership Awards. The endowment fund will provide a financial award to the recipient of the KINDness Award. Recipient must be a sophomore or junior student in good academic standing.

Please consider the following questions/prompts when completing the online nomination form.

- Is the candidate in good academic standing?
- How does the candidate represent or embody the attributes of kindness and noble behavior?
- In what ways has the candidate demonstrated kindness?
- Why is the candidate qualified for the KINDness Award?
