Dear Trinity University:

The Entertainment Software Association ("ESA") is a U.S. trade association that represents the intellectual property interests of numerous companies that publish interactive games for video game consoles, personal computers, handheld devices and the Internet (hereinafter collectively referred to as "ESA members"). ESA is authorized to act on behalf of ESA members whose copyright and other intellectual property rights it believes to be infringed as described herein.

ESA is providing this notice pursuant to the Section 512 of Title 17 of the U.S. Code (as enacted by the 'Online Copyright Infringement Liability Limitation Act') to make Trinity University aware that the IP Address identified below is using the services and systems of Trinity University to infringe the exclusive copyright and other rights of one or more ESA members. This notice is addressed to you as the agent designated by Trinity University to receive notifications of claimed infringement.

Based on the information at its disposal on 2009-12-10T01:26:39.66Z, ESA has a good faith belief that the subscriber using the IP address 131.194.236.21 is infringing the copyright rights of one or more ESA members by copying and distributing unauthorized copies of game products (through peer-to-peer or similar software/services) or by causing, allowing, encouraging and/or contributing to the copying and distributing of unauthorized copies of games products, in violation of applicable copyright laws, through internet access that Trinity University provides directly to the 131.194.236.21 or through a downstream provider that purchases this access for 131.194.236.21. The copyrighted works that have been infringed include but are not limited to:

Sid Meier's Civilization IV

The unauthorized copies of game product are listed and/or identified thereon by their titles or variations thereof, game-related listings/references/descriptions, or depictions of game-related artwork. Such copies, titles, game-related listings/references/descriptions, depictions, and material that is the subject of infringing activities are hereinafter referred to as "Infringing Material."

Given this infringing activity by 131.194.236.21, the ESA urges Trinity University to cooperate with its efforts to protect the intellectual property rights of its members companies and immediately do the following:

1. Notify the account holder of the Infringing Material.
2. Take steps to stop the infringing activity.
3. Take appropriate action against the account holder under your Abuse Policy/Terms of Service Agreement, including termination of repeat offenders under Section 512(i) of Title 17 of the U.S. Code.

ESA believes that the information in this notification is accurate. Under penalty of perjury, I hereby affirm that ESA is authorized to act on behalf of ESA members whose exclusive copyright rights we believe to be infringed as described herein. Trinity University or the account holder may contact ESA at the above-listed contact details, with email preferred. Please include the above-noted Reference Number in the subject line of all email correspondence.

Thank you for your cooperation and prompt response in this matter.

Sincerely,

Intellectual Property Enforcement
Entertainment Software Association
