SECTION 2: REGISTRATION

1. To be a registered vehicle owner, a person must be a student, faculty, staff, or an authorized guest of Trinity University. Only registered vehicles are authorized to park on campus. Parking Services shall be notified of the change in vehicle ownership. At the time of registration, the following information must be provided: name, address, phone number, email address, and vehicle make, model, year, and license plate number. Additional information may be requested. The vehicle registration permit is honored (e.g., vehicle disabled, loading and unloading, etc.). To apply the sticker, follow the instructions on the back of the permit. The parking permit (e.g., vehicle disabled, loading and unloading, etc.).

2. The "registration year" extends from September 1 through August 31. Parking on campus throughout the year: 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. Persons periodically parking on campus that are not registered for classes or employed by the University. In addition, people who regularly frequent the campus (at

3. Are State and Local Traffic and Parking Laws Designed. Strict enforcement must be maintained. These parking regulations. Specific steps will be taken to ensure compliance of the

4. To be considered a visitor, a person must be visiting a student, faculty, staff, or an authorized guest of Trinity University. Visitors are not considered state and local traffic and parking laws. Persons periodically parking on campus that are not registered for classes or employed by the University. In addition, people who regularly frequent the campus (at

5. To be considered a visitor, a person must be visiting a student, faculty, staff, or an authorized guest of Trinity University. Visitors are not considered state and local traffic and parking laws. Persons periodically parking on campus that are not registered for classes or employed by the University. In addition, people who regularly frequent the campus (at

6. All Laurie Auditorium levels, Lots B, H, O, P, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z, and Heidi Circle. All registered vehicles with proper permit are allowed to park in any space indicated except lots or spaces that are reserved at all times.

7. All persons must present a valid State Driver License when parking on campus that are not registered for classes or employed by the University. In addition, people who regularly frequent the campus (at

8. If I need to "run a quick errand" in a building, is it

9. If I live off campus, can I park in a visitor space?

10. Can I park in Alamo Stadium?

11. Is open parking allowed during semester and holiday breaks?

12. What constitutes a visitor for the purpose of visitor parking regulations? Persons periodically parking on campus that are not registered for classes or employed by the University. In addition, people who regularly frequent the campus (at

13. Are State and Local Traffic and Parking Laws

14. Can I park in Alamo Stadium? Parking in Alamo Stadium is allowed for student, faculty, and staff members. The TUPD must be notified of the change in vehicle ownership. An additional space number is required for the completion of the registration process at Parking Services. Additionally, while on campus use the following means of communication:

- Use a "Blue Light" emergency phone
- Use the "University of Texas at San Antonio Campus Police" application on your smartphone or computer
- Text: "Intruder," phone number, and location to 911911
- Use the "University of Texas at San Antonio Campus Police" application on your smartphone or computer
- Call the TUPD at 210-999-7000
- Call 911 for emergencies

Attorney General's Office for more information about how to use these services. The TUPD is open 24 hours a day to provide emergency

15. What is the difference between a Faculty (Blue permit), Staff (Gold permit), Student (Maroon permit), and Trinity Affiliates parking permit?

16. If you feel that a citation is unwarranted, you must file an appeal online to https://inside.trinity.edu/university-police/parking-services. Once the appeal has been reviewed, you will receive a response by e-mail.

17. If I live off campus, can I park in a visitor space?

18. If I need to "run a quick errand" in a building, is it

19. Can I park in Alamo Stadium?

20. Is open parking allowed during semester and holiday breaks?

21. What constitutes a visitor for the purpose of visitor parking regulations? Persons periodically parking on campus that are not registered for classes or employed by the University. In addition, people who regularly frequent the campus (at

22. Are State and Local Traffic and Parking Laws

23. Can I park in Alamo Stadium? Parking in Alamo Stadium is allowed for student, faculty, and staff members. The TUPD must be notified of the change in vehicle ownership. An additional space number is required for the completion of the registration process at Parking Services. Additionally, while on campus use the following means of communication:

- Use a "Blue Light" emergency phone
- Use the "University of Texas at San Antonio Campus Police" application on your smartphone or computer
- Text: "Intruder," phone number, and location to 911911
- Use the "University of Texas at San Antonio Campus Police" application on your smartphone or computer
- Call the TUPD at 210-999-7000
- Call 911 for emergencies

Attorney General's Office for more information about how to use these services. The TUPD is open 24 hours a day to provide emergency

24. What is the difference between a Faculty (Blue permit), Staff (Gold permit), Student (Maroon permit), and Trinity Affiliates parking permit?

25. If you feel that a citation is unwarranted, you must file an appeal online to https://inside.trinity.edu/university-police/parking-services. Once the appeal has been reviewed, you will receive a response by e-mail.

26. If I live off campus, can I park in a visitor space?

27. If I need to "run a quick errand" in a building, is it

28. Can I park in Alamo Stadium?

29. Is open parking allowed during semester and holiday breaks?

30. What constitutes a visitor for the purpose of visitor parking regulations? Persons periodically parking on campus that are not registered for classes or employed by the University. In addition, people who regularly frequent the campus (at

31. Are State and Local Traffic and Parking Laws

32. Can I park in Alamo Stadium? Parking in Alamo Stadium is allowed for student, faculty, and staff members. The TUPD must be notified of the change in vehicle ownership. An additional space number is required for the completion of the registration process at Parking Services. Additionally, while on campus use the following means of communication:

- Use a "Blue Light" emergency phone
- Use the "University of Texas at San Antonio Campus Police" application on your smartphone or computer
- Text: "Intruder," phone number, and location to 911911
- Use the "University of Texas at San Antonio Campus Police" application on your smartphone or computer
- Call the TUPD at 210-999-7000
- Call 911 for emergencies

Attorney General's Office for more information about how to use these services. The TUPD is open 24 hours a day to provide emergency

33. What is the difference between a Faculty (Blue permit), Staff (Gold permit), Student (Maroon permit), and Trinity Affiliates parking permit?

34. If you feel that a citation is unwarranted, you must file an appeal online to https://inside.trinity.edu/university-police/parking-services. Once the appeal has been reviewed, you will receive a response by e-mail.

35. If I live off campus, can I park in a visitor space?

36. If I need to "run a quick errand" in a building, is it