Community Crime Alert
September 3, 2013

The university community has recently been subjected to several thefts in the Bell Athletic Center. The suspect stole a number of personal and university credit cards from one of the administrative offices.

The suspect is described as a black female in her mid-twenties. The picture below shows the suspect charging at a local mall immediately after the theft. The theft occurred during normal business hours.

If you can identify the suspect above or observe any suspicious activity, please contact University Police immediately at 999-7070.

Your safety is our concern.