

TRINITY ROCKS

The San Antonio Rock 'n' Roll Marathon and Half Marathon!

RUN THIS WAY!

The entire Trinity community will welcome the 2013 San Antonio Rock 'n' Roll Marathon and Half-Marathon participants as they pass through campus this Sunday morning.

The runners' route through campus will be along Stadium Drive, across lower campus, and out by way of Ledge Lane across from Trinity University Police Department. Runners will be greeted first by Admissions staff. Then, various organizations, departments, and the Acabellas and Trinitones will encourage runners as they make their way past Northrup and Coates. Marathoners will cross lower campus to the beat of the Trinity's Stand Band and be greeted by professors in academic regalia near Prassel Garage. Finally, alumni will wave the runners on as they leave campus.

As part of an effort to highlight San Antonio history and beauty, course planners added Trinity to the Marathon route for the first time this year.

As many as 100 of Trinity's own will complete some part of the Marathon Sunday. The rest of the community can demonstrate pride and support with signs and cheers. See our "Show Your Support" how-to guide.

A map on the back of this special section details the route through Trinity and tells supporters where to get coffee early Sunday morning.

Want a Trinity Rocks t-shirt?

Donate today at the Coates University Center or give a Tiger Bucks donation in exchange for a shirt to wear as you cheer on the runners. The Kayla Mire Food Drive is named for 2010 Trinity graduate Kayla Mire who died shortly after her graduation. She was an ASR Senator and a strong ally for those in need.

PLAN TO ARRIVE AT 7:30, AND YOU MUST BE IN PLACE BY 8!

Know Your Marathon

- Runners will be participating in the half marathon (13.1 miles) and full marathon (26.2 miles).
- As many as 100 members of the Trinity community will participate.
- This is the sixth year for the Dean of Students Half Marathon Challenge and Kayla Mire Food Drive.
- Annually about 25,000 runners from around the world participate in the San Antonio event.
- The San Antonio course winds north through Brackenridge Park and past the Zoo. Runners will enter Trinity at Devine and Stadium Drive.
- Trinity University will be at approximately the six-mile mark on the course. All runners (half and full) come through campus.
- The relay hand-off spot is at Alamo Stadium. Trinity's own Spurs sorority is helping work that area.

Trinitonian's How-To Guide: SHOW YOUR SUPPORT

Runners will be slogging through 26.2 (full marathon) or 13.1 (half marathon) miles Sunday morning. Trinity is at the sixth mile on the course, and all runners will come through campus. Your spirited reception will encourage marathon participants and start a great new Trinity tradition.

- 1) Be on the course no later than 8 am (See our map on the back of this pull-out section.)
- 2) Coming from off campus? Stadium Drive will be closed. Enter campus from Bushnell, Oakmont, or Rosewood. Park on upper campus. Laurie Garage will be open.
- 3) Use this handy fill-in-the-blank sign to support runners you know or make your own sign. (Supplies available in Coates 11 am - 1 pm today and in the Witt Center 1 pm - 5 pm)
- 4) Wear club jerseys, team jerseys, or anything Trinity (color you maroon).
- 5) Come with noise-makers and loud cheers.
- 6) The first runners will be competing, so give them space.
- 7) Most runners will have been through by 10 am. Join other volunteers and supporters for a free Taco Taco breakfast 10-11 am in Mabee Hall.

Even supporters can be Winners: Gift card prizes will be given on the spot for the best signs on race day. The most spirited academic, administrative, and student groups will win a happy hour celebration.

OUR NEIGHBORS SUPPORT RUNNERS, TOO!

To be listed in the November 22nd Trinitonian as a TU-affiliated runner, email Dean Tuttle at dtuttle@trinity.edu.
