

CAS Review: Fraternity and Sorority Programs

Purpose: The Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education (CAS) Self-Assessment Guide consists of standards and guidelines used to evaluate the strengths and deficiencies of fraternity and sorority programs. The assessment was completed in Fall 2015 and action steps for opportunities were identified.

Top 10 Action Steps

Summer 2016

Action Step: Review and implement new off-campus party policies

Action Step: Encourage additional F/S presence w/in the TU community

Example: Master calendar of all campus events

Action Step: Greater communication of F/S accomplishments

Example: Trinity alumni magazine; alumni/active spotlights

2017-2018 Academic Year

Action Step: Promote further diversity within the F/S community

Example: Standards diversity events; GC Diversity Chair/Diversity panel

Completed/ Partially Completed

1

Action Step: Promote student learning and development outcomes

Example: Leadership N' Lunch leadership development series

2

Action Step: Information sharing to enhance ownership & responsibility

Example: GC counterpart check-ins; minutes shared with alumni monthly

3

4

2016-2017 Academic Year

Action Step: Additional recognition opportunities for students/orgs

Example: Year-end awards banquet

5

6

Action Step: Develop org. strategic plans & include components for diversity, equity, and access

Example: President goals/strategic plans

7

8

Action Plan: Use assessment data to evaluate recruiting, orientation, and GC leadership experiences

Example: End-of-year summary

9

Yearly/Ongoing

10

Action Step: Narrow Fraternity-Sorority "gap" to enhance the male experience

Example: The Men Project